

Dissemination of the first project meeting in Moreni - Romania
14.10- 19.10.2013

Tuesday, 15th October 2013

All the partners were welcomed by the authorities, the head teacher of LICEUL TEORETIC „I.L.CARAGIALE”, the coordinator Mirandolina Matei and the students.

The partners were welcomed in the Romanian traditional way with bread, salt and flowers. The Romanian students proposed a game in which they represented citizens of the partnership's country. They made a presentation of each country referring to its geography, culture and civilization. The partners had to guess the name of the country. Each representative gave the coordinator small gift, a mug which was personalized with the name of partnership and folk costumes of each country. They also offered some magnets with the places which are very characteristic in Romania.

In the work session, each partner made the presentation in Power Point about its own country showing interesting places, cities, culture, cuisine, education system.

There were discussed the aspects regarding the proper unfolding and management of the project: planning, activities, solutions for unexpected problems. There were established each partner's responsibilities. There were discussed issues regarding the management and unfolding of our project website Twin-space. There were settled the responsibilities of the Students' Wisdom Committee and The Transnational Students' Wisdom Committee.

Wednesday, 16th October, 2013

There was a documentation trip to Bucharest, to the Palace of Parliament which is a very good example of the Romanian history in the Communist regime. We also visited The Village Museum and at The Romanian Peasant's Museum. We saw Romanian handicraft at a Romanian traditional fair.

We discussed common point and differences between our nations related to culture, architecture and tradition.

Thursday, 17th October, 2013

There was a documentation trip to Brasov, to the Museum of Ethnography. We wanted to meet with Romanian myth and legend connected with Vlad the Impaler. We had a guided tour in Bran Castle.

During the working session, we exchange our opinions regarding legends in each country. We evaluated our documentation trips. We tried to make comparisons between countries we live.

Friday, 18th October, 2013

There was discussion about the members' responsibilities. We discussed the final products In Turkey(a video collection of traditions that people have at important events in their lives and a Power Point presentation on customs, beliefs when human beings are born, get married, have children or die).

We chose the proper dates for project meetings in Norway and Spain.

We also discussed about ways of communication and solutions for unexpected problems. We evaluated our first project meeting in Romania.
