

Dissemination of the sixth project meeting in Limanowa Poland
24.11 – 29.11.2014

Tuesday, 25th November, 2014

All the partners were welcomed in the town hall by the mayor of Limanowa. He presented our region and town and answered all the questions. Then we had a tour of the town and went to our school. The head teacher of Zespół Szkół Samorządowych Nr 1 welcomed all the participants of the project. They were welcomed traditionally with bread and salt.

After the ceremony we started with the presentations. All the Comenius teams, one by one presented the data that they collected in the questionnaire about health, ethics and personal fulfilment. We tried to compare some answers that people gave in the questionnaires. We took into discussion some distinguishing answers.

Then the students took part in the interview. on the importance of traditions in people's lives. They asked and answered questions connected to the traditions they safeguard in their families and countries. We recorded the interview.

After work Polish team organized a guided tour around our school.

There was a documentation trip to Krakow. We had a guided tour around the city and visited The Barbican, The Floriańska Gate, The Clothes Hall (Sukiennice), The Town Hall Tower, The Main Market Square (Rynek), St. Mary's Basilica. Then we visited The Royal Castle. Everybody could see and touch the Royal Sigismund Bell which is regarded as one of the country's national symbols. They could admire the picturesque view from the Sigismund Tower.

The guide told our foreign guests the most important facts about the history of our country. It was a very instructive lesson. Krakow Old Town and The Royal Castle are UNESCO World Heritage Site.

We also gained knowledge about Krakow's past admiring unusual exhibition in The Underground Museum. The participants of the project were very interested in history of our country.

The next day we started very early in the morning. The first destination was Oświęcim. We organized a documentation trip to German Nazi concentration and extermination camp. This place is very important not only for us but for the whole world. The visit made an indelible impression on the visitors.

In the afternoon, on the way home we took our partners to The Wieliczka Salt Mine which is one of the largest and most valuable monuments of material and spiritual culture in Poland. Both, Auschwitz-Birkenau and The Wieliczka Salt Mine are UNESCO World Heritage Site. We are proud of them. We are very glad that we could introduce our foreign guests the most important icons of Polish culture and tradition.

On the last day we had a workshop at school. We watched the interview that students recorded on Tuesday. We knew their opinions on the traditions they safeguard in their families and countries.

All the teams evaluated the sixth meeting and discussed the final products they presented during the meeting.

Furthermore, we made some preparations for the next meeting which will be held in March in Latvia.

Dissemination made by Polish team:

Monika Futiakiewicz – coordinator and students participating in the project from Zespół Szkół Samorządowych Nr 1 w Limanowej
